The Offerings offer opportunities for partnership, learning, and witness and profoundly affect the life of the church as a collective witness to Jesus Christ's love for the whole church.

One Great Hour of Sharing is one of four annual special offerings. The four churchwide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) play an important role in defining what it means to be a connectional church in

You shall be called repairers of the breach

— ISAIAH 58

Providing relief
from natural disasters,
food for the hungry,
and support for the poor and oppressed.

Through One Great Hour of Sharing, we become the household of God. We extend shelter to those who have no place to stay, offer compassion to those who have pain—be it physical, emotional or spiritual—and we set a feast, with God, for those who lack access to enough food to eat. God’s household filled with love and everyone is welcome.

KAALMO RELIEF AND DEVELOPMENT

After living through years of drought and the death of her husband, Abdi was desperate to feed her children. The only option she felt she had was to leave her home and walk many miles to a camp for internally displaced persons to ensure the safety of her four young children and her unborn child. Against the background of Somalia’s civil war, the journey was fraught with danger, including the possibility of attack from armed groups and assault.

“We had nothing to take with us, and we had to beg for water,” she says.

Abdi’s mission to bring her children to a safe refuge was successful. Now she and her children receive a monthly allocation of food that One Great Hour of Sharing gifts help provide.

“The food aid has improved the living conditions of my family,” she says. “I am able to feed my starving children.”

Give to One Great Hour of Sharing to open our doors;
to repair the breach.

Where God is,
there is hope for the suffering
and the vulnerable.

Received during the season of Lent, One Great Hour of Sharing is the single, largest way that Presbyterians join together to share God’s love with our neighbors-in-need around the world. Each gift to One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) helps to improve the lives of people in challenging situations through three impactful programs:

PRESBYTERIAN DISASTER ASSISTANCE

Restorers of Streets to Live In

- + Works alongside communities as they recover and find hope after the devastation of natural or human-caused disasters

PRESBYTERIAN HUNGER PROGRAM

Share your Bread with the Hungry

- + Takes action to alleviate hunger and the systemic causes of poverty so all may be fed

SELF-DEVELOPMENT OF PEOPLE

Loose the Bonds of Injustice

- + Invests in communities responding to their experiences of racism, oppression, poverty and injustice and educates Presbyterians about the impact of these societal ills
