Presbyterian Mission

The Peace & Global Witness Offering is one of four annual special offerings. The church-wide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) play an important role in defining what it means to be a connectional church in the twenty-first century, bringing together the diversity of the PC (USA) to focus and take faith-based action on shared concerns. The Offerings offer opportunities for partnership, learning, and witness and profoundly affect the life of the church as a collective witness to Jesus Christ's love for the whole church.

and from every

for peace.*

"I could feel God calling me back..."

Fifteen years later, the Rev. Matthew Fricker felt compelled to return to Iraq where he had served as a soldier.

Rev. Fricker was deeply moved by what he experienced upon his return to Iraq. "I sat with people, and we talked about our families, war, rebuilding, and hope for a brighter future," he said. "We talked about reconciliation in partnership. We talked with passion about unity in peace. What I received from the people I met was healing ... it was true love."

He is just one of many of us who are moved by God's call to work together as active peacemakers, and stand in support of our global sisters and brothers, because the peace of Christ belongs to people everywhere.

Thanks to your gifts to the Peace & Global Witness Offering, we are joined in Paul's prayer that God grant us "peace in all times, in all ways."

*Peace is active,
not passive;
peace is doing,
not waiting.*

Your gifts will help more people experience the freedom and dignity that Christ wants for everyone. Let us offer the peace of Christ in all times and all ways.
