

SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

ST. ANDREWS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

REFORMATION SUNDAY

OCTOBER 29, 2023

10:00 AM

GATHERING IN GOD'S NAME

GATHERING CALL

WELCOME

OPENING VOLUNTARY Rondo Campana Malcom Wilson
Chancel Bells

PROCESSIONAL Highland Cathedral Uli Roever & Michael Kolb

CHORAL INTROIT Bryn Calfaria William Owen

†CALL TO WORSHIP

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Let us call upon the one who knows every thread in the fabric of our lives.

God of every seam and stitch, gather and mend us.

Let us call upon the one who embroiders new designs, who weaves new textiles with patience and delight.

God of every seam and stitch, gather and mend us.

Let us call upon the one who patches worn places with compassion.

God of every seam and stitch, gather and mend us.

We are the tapestry of God, each strand important to the pattern, each frayed end worth the mending, every thread a treasure.

May we hope in these words, may harmony be our mending.

Let us worship our God!

†HYMN OF PRAISE 37 Let All Things Now Living ASH GROVE

PSALTER Brother James's Air James Leith Macbeth Bain
Psalm 23 Arr. Gordon Jacob

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, you made us in your image, with a mind to know you, a heart to love you, and a will to serve you. But our knowledge is imperfect, our love inconstant, our obedience incomplete. Day by day we fail to grow into your likeness; yet you are slow to be angry with your children. For the sake of Jesus Christ, your Son, our Savior, do not hold our sins against us, but in your tender love, forgive. Silence is kept for personal prayers of confession.

CHORAL PETITION Lord, Have Mercy Upon Us John Merbecke

WELCOME

The service begins with the first note of the Opening Voluntary.

Please join in reading or singing those parts of the service printed in bold.

† When this symbol precedes an element of the service, please rise in body or spirit, as able.

LET ALL THINGS NOW LIVING

The Welsh folk melody, ASH GROVE, is known by many from the Avery and Marsh songbook from camp. The tune fits well with the text, singing praise for God's creation and providence.

CALL TO CONFESSION

This invitation to confess comes from The Scots Confession, the charter document of the Church of Scotland (1560). Following civil war, the parliament declared Scotland a protestant nation and called upon prominent pastors, including John Knox, to write a confession of faith for the Kirk. Following the reunion of the Presbyterian Church (USA) in 1983, this document became a part of our Book of Confessions.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Our corporate prayer of confession comes from the Church of Scotland's current Book of Common Order (1994).

SILENCE

The time of silence allows you to speak or listen to God as you best need this morning.

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

†HYMN 45

I to the High Hills Will Lift My Eyes
Psalm 121

DUNDEE

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

This declaration is adapted from the liturgy John Calvin used in churches he served in Geneva and Strasbourg (circa 1542).

SCRIPTURE RESPONSE

After each scripture reading the reader will say, "The Word of the Lord." All are invited to respond, "Thanks be to God."

†AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

from The Belbar Confession

We believe that God has revealed himself as the one who wishes to bring about justice and true peace among people; that God, in a world full of injustice and enmity, is in a special way the God of the destitute, the poor and the wronged; that God calls the church to follow in this; for God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry; that God supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger, helps orphans and widows and blocks the path of the ungodly; that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good and to seek the right; that the church must therefore stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things, that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream; that the church as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands, namely against injustice and with the wronged; that in following Christ the church must witness against all the powerful and privileged who selfishly seek their own interests and thus control and harm others.

Therefore, we reject any ideology which would legitimate forms of injustice and any doctrine which is unwilling to resist such an ideology in the name of the gospel. Jesus is Lord.

To the one and only God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be the honor and the glory for ever and ever.

SHARING JOYS AND CONCERNS OF GOD'S CHURCH, COMMUNITY & WORLD

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Confession of Belbar is a powerful confession of the Christian faith that emerged in South Africa during Apartheid. Named for the city where it was first adopted, it is a statement that focuses on the themes of Unity, Reconciliation, and Justice. Churches around the globe have recognized the power and theological insight of Belbar as an expression of Scriptural truth for their contexts. In 2016 the 222nd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA) formally adopted the confession into our Book of Confessions.

AMAZING GRACE

John Newton wrote the text to this popular hymn to accompany a sermon preached on 1 Chronicles 17:16-17. These verses record David reflecting on the message from the prophet Nathan, remembering how he was raised from a lowly shepherd and how he would not see his hopes for the future realized.

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

Because we have been forgiven in Christ, we can forgive one another. We demonstrate this by sharing Christ's peace with one another.

WELCOME

We invite you to join St Andrews, a congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA), in ministry and in worship.

Please note your presence on the list in the narthex so that members of our church family may welcome you. Your presence is a joy for us.

Families are welcome to use the parlor in the narthex during worship. Books, quiet games, and comfy seating are available, and you will be able to view a live stream of the service. For those who wish to stay in the sanctuary, the PRAYground is available, offering educational and interactive materials.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2024 Pledges Thank you to all who have sent in their pledge cards. If you have not pledged yet, it is not too late. You can still mail, email or bring your pledge card on Sunday morning. We invite you to prayerfully consider and reflect on the ministry you make possible through your financial pledge. Your commitment helps St. Andrews continue to love God and neighbor in the coming year.

Shortbread & More Reception Join us after worship in the Youth Lounge for fellowship and treats.

Flowers Today are given by Margaret Ellingson to the Glory of God and in honor of the Scottish roots of the Presbyterian church.

Today in Worship We extend our sincere appreciation to the Saint Andrews Society of Atlanta and Burt Temples of the Stone Mountain Highland Games for the tartans, and a special thank you to Michael Grest, piper extraordinaire. Please scan this code, or pick up a paper copy in the narthex to learn more about today's musical selections and traditions.

Nominating Committee Members of the congregation who wish to suggest someone (either self or another member) as elder or deacon candidates should complete the Nominating Committee Form found in the narthex and in your Thursday email, or contact the church office or Camille.

39ers The 39ers will meet at Jason's Deli at Noon on Tuesday, October 31st, located at 4073 Lavista Road. Everyone is welcome to join in the fun!

Help for the Caregiving Years, November 4th Join us for this free and informative event at St. Andrews this Saturday from 9-2:30. There will be two keynote addresses by nationally known speaker, Denise M. Brown, booths from community partners, and the opportunity to sign up for a virtual dementia tour by Second Wind Dreams. Please see your weekly email for more information. There is no need to register, just come!
